Sliced Thin by The Editor
Alex. H. WashburnWe Hear From
New Hampshire
Publisher

Editor The Star: Thank you very much, for that very splendid editorial, "Home Rule is Yours Only When You Pay For It." We are going to reprint this in our paper and, of course, a copy will be sent to you when it appears.

May I congratulate you on evidently not being afraid to say what you believe. As you know, so many owners of our newspapers
today think they are simply a vehicle to make money and the best way to do that is to stand for nothing and annoy nobody.

This, of course, is not only an abdication of the obligations
which go along with the privilege of freedom of the press, but it is stupid, to boot.

Our paper has never pulled any punches, yet every year we have more circulation and more advertising, and we are not operating in a boom area. When I look over the paper in 1946, it was a pretty "milk toast" proposition. It had 44,000 circulation.
Now, 20 years later, it has 54,000
circulation and I think about the highest circulation rate in the nation. We charge a dime a day and 70c a week, home delivered.

If I were asked to name the second greatest reason our nation is in the mess it is today, I would say it was because there aren't enough publishers like you.
Without the newspapers to check the politicians, they will get away with everything.

As a concrete example of this,
let us remember that the American Newspaper Editors, meeting
at their annual convention in Washington, D.C., in 1959, had as their honored guest, to whom they gave a standing ovation, none other than Fidel Castro. They did this, in spite of the fact that our medium-size newspaper had long since known that Castro was either a Communist or Communist controlled and we had warned Healey, editor of the New Orleans Picayune, who at that time was president of the newspaper editors association, but he couldn't have cared less.

As a result, since the newspapers and other communications media, made no uproar about Castro, John and Mary Smith,
busy making a living, didn't see any reason why they should be concerned about the matter, so the clique in the State Department were able to get away with this.

Congratulations again for running a courageous, fighting newspaper and with best wishes. Very
sincerely,

WILLIAM LOEB

P.S. Incidentally, lest you think
I do not know about the problems
of printing a paper your size,
my first venture, which I still have, is the St. Albans Daily Messenger, in St. Albans, Vermont. It has about 2,900 circulation, so it is smaller than yours.
P.P.S. Louise Day Hicks, the Boston School Committee lady who wouldn't concur with the NAACP, is a personal friend of Mrs. Loeb's and mine. To show you what the real sentiment here
is, she ran for the school committee at the same time Mayor Collins ran for re-election and she got more votes than he did.

Technical
School Head
Will Speak

All registered and practical nurses are invited to hear J. W.
Rowe, director of the Red River
Vocational-Technical School on Tuesday night, August 2 at 7:30
at the meeting of the Prescott
District Nurses Meeting in Hemp-stead Memorial Dining Room.
Rowe will discuss the purposes,
aims, and advantages of the new facility.

Mrs. B. F. Rice, President of the Nurses, said the meeting
would be enlightening, and that all would be invited to the meeting. The school is scheduled to open September 26 with office practices,
forestry, welding, machine shop,
diesel mechanics, heavy equipment operation being taught in addition to practical nursing.

Union Reject
Blocks Air
Strike End

NEW YORK (AP) — The vote
by union machinists not to accept the proposed settlement of their strike against five airlines has heaped frustration upon thousands of persons who had hoped to be airborne soon.

After being grounded for more than three weeks, travelers had expected to take off —
many of them as early as today.
Hopes were high after President Johnson's announcement
Friday night that the airlines
and the leadership of the AFL-CIO International Association of Machinists had reached a tentative settlement.

Airlines accepted many thousands of reservations. The bubble burst Sunday when the machinists rejected the settlement.

Mass cancellations of reservations resulted.
Disappointment also was keen
for the airlines, which are suffering heavy losses, and for many thousands of infuriated
airlines employees.

Resort areas — whose patrons
are carried mostly by planes —
went back into their gloom.

Frank Henry, president of the Greater Miami Hotel Association, said: "This is heaping insult over injury."
Low Price, director of the Miami-Metro News Bureau, said
city and county officials planned to place ads in Eastern, Midwestern and Southern newspapers in an attempt to lure motoring tourists.

Many people had to make another change in their vacation
or business trip plans — or cancel them outright — because of the strike against Trans World,
United, Eastern, National and Northwest airlines which is 25
days old.

TWA said in New York that it was uncertain what to do about 121,000 reservations the airline
had accepted since Saturday,
when it appeared that the strike
would end by today.

"It is particularly unfortunate," TWA said, "that we will be unable to accommodate the backlog of approximately 16,000
Americans stranded in Europe
due to the strike."

"We sincerely regret the continued inconvenience to our passengers which will result."

A spokesman for Eastern Air Lines in New York said it had alerted thousands of employees
not to report for work Sunday night after it learned of the strike settlement rejection.

Two Win King
Cotton Tourney

BLYTHEVILLE, Ark. (AP) —
Junie Dowell of Walnut Ridge
and George Puryear of Jonesboro won the King Cotton Four-Ball golf tournament here Sunday, defeating John Simmons
of Marshall, Mo., and Richard Poe of Rella, Mo., on the second hole of a sudden death playoff after the teams were tied at 202 at the end of regular play.

He will undergo four weeks of individual combat training and four weeks of basic specialist
training in his military occupational field before being assigned to a permanent unit.

Truman's
Ailment
Colitis

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) —
A severe attack of colitis — an intestinal disturbance — has weakened former President Harry S. Truman, but a research hospital spokesman says
"there is no cause for alarm. He is progressing satisfactorily."

Dr. Wallace H. Graham, Truman's physician for many years, said definitive diagnostic studies and tests are being postponed until the 82-year-old former chief executive is stronger. He was hospitalized Saturday.

A hospital report said Mrs.
Truman spent Sunday afternoon
with her husband and that Truman read the Sunday papers
before retiring and rested comfortably.

In Washington, former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, 75, remains under observation at Walter Reed Army Hospital for arthritis.

Eisenhower, who has been in the hospital most of the last two weeks, also is receiving a routine checkup.

Truman received a bouquet of gold mums and red roses Saturday from President and Mrs.
Johnson.

Youth Week at
First Methodist

The young people of the First Methodist church will hold its Youth Activities Week beginning
Sunday, July 31, and closing on Thursday, August 4.

The theme this year is "Why Bother with God?" and the guest speaker will be the Rev. Jerry Westmoreland of Prescott. All students from the seventh grade
up are especially invited.

Hempstead
Eligible for Drouth Aid

The Secretary of Agriculture
has just announced the designation of Crawford, Franklin, Hempstead, Newton and Scott

counties as drouth disaster
areas. The Star was advised in a telegram received from Congressman Jim Trimble this weekend.

Eligible farmers in the counties, he continued, may permit
hay and grazing lands set aside
under conservation reserve programs. Downward adjustments will be made in payment to farmers if these lands are harvested or grazed.

Arms Cache
Near Saigon
Wiped Out

By ROBERT TUCKMAN
SAIGON, South Viet Nam
(AP) — High-flying U.S. B52
bombers plastered a Viet Cong
base camp near Saigon today
and ground troops sweeping in after the raid uncovered a big cache of arms and ammunition.

The eight-engine giants
dropped their bombs 25 miles northwest of Saigon shortly after dawn. The thunderous explosions could be heard in the capital.

Two hours later, helicopters
poured infantrymen of the U.S.
25th Division into the area. They found 90,000 rounds of ammunition, mines, booby traps and submachine guns but no enemy
bodies. Two U.S. helicopters were hit by ground fire after landing the troops but were repaired and flown out without casualties.

A U.S. Air Force F104 Starfighter was shot down 40 miles north of Hanoi by ground fire
this afternoon, a U.S. Air Force spokesman announced.

The Starfighter was on an escort mission, the spokesman said. The pilot is reported missing.

Ground fighting throughout South Viet Nam was generally light except in the central highlands where other troops of the 25th Division came under heavy mortar and automatic weapons
fire.

A Dreadful Thought
From Boyle: Million
Adults Study Guitar

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Things a
columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

The guitar is no longer simply a teen-age weapon. At least a million adults are now taking evening courses in how to play
the instrument, and guitars
have become a $150 million a year industry.

California now claims it produces 25 per cent of America's table food — and this doesn't even include Hollywood's corn output.

Talking about your fat can help you get rid of it. Researchers found that group discussions
among dieters did more than drug therapy to cause them to lose weight.

Does your household pet do anything to earn his keep? Well,
why not get him on a payroll?
Last year 19,540 animals and birds were hired to act in television and the movies.

In 1860, the cost for Abraham Lincoln's national election campaign was $100,000, probably the biggest political bargain in history.

Little-noticed milestones:
Grape has now passed strawberry as the nation's favorite flavor in jam.

If a bee stings you you can be sure it isn't a queen bee. Queen bees don't waste their stings on

Chicago Hit
by Rioting
on March

By LAWRENCE L. KNUTSON
CHICAGO (AP) — More than 3,000 angry white persons,
shouting "White power!" as they threw rocks and bottles,
drove 350 civil rights demonstrators from an all-white neighborhood Sunday.

Sixty persons — including three policemen and a nun —
were injured by rocks and bottles. Scores of persons, mostly white youths, were arrested.

It was the most serious direct clash of Negroes and whites in Chicago in several years, police said.

Earlier this summer, riots
wracked Puerto Rican and Negro areas.

Gangs of white youths burned 30 of the marchers' cars and pushed two into a lagoon. The autos had been left in a park in the normally tranquil middle-class Irish-Lithuanian-Polish neighborhood of new bungalows
and homes on Chicago's South-West Side.

The demonstrators — white
and Negro, priests and nuns,
men and women and children —
moved from the area at a fast
walk without returning the violence as 250 policemen attempted to keep the whites away.

They were protesting under the banner of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., against alleged discrimination in housing.

Dr. King, chairman of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, organized the march last week. King was not in Chicago Sunday.

It was part of King's direct action program to make Chicago
an "open city" in housing.

The demonstrators met in a Negro church after the march and said they would go back to the all-white area. They did not say when.

After the demonstrators left,
whites swarmed into Marquette
Park in droves of 500 to 1,000.
They overturned the marchers'
cars and burned them. Firemen were summoned, and were pelted with rocks and bottles by the whites.

Police estimated about 3,000
white hecklers were present
during the evening.

Giant Sunflower

pod alone measured 38" around,
and was grown in the garden.

another title: The Henrys grow
sunflower seed as a health food.

Sea of Publicity
Hurts Chance for Fair Trial, He Says

By BARRY SCHWEID
WASHINGTON (AP) —
"You're already prejudiced without one word of evidence against Speck brought forth," Louisville attorney John T. Bal-
antine told the delegates to the National Association of Legal Secretaries last week.

"That's exactly what the press and bar are trying to avoid," he added.

Two-thirds of the 400 delegates, meeting in Louisville,
had raised their hand when Bal-
antine asked how many thought the publicity would hinder
Speck's chances for a fair trial.

After Speck's arrest, Wilson defended himself. Asked at a news conference if he should have called Speck the murderer, Wilson replied: "He is, he is."

"The information about Speck
that I gave the Chicago public was information that we determined they should have had.
This was our justification for announcing that Speck was the killer."

"I saw no reason for concealing those facts from the public."
Northwestern University law
Professor Fred Inbau said Wilson not only was within bounds
in making the statement but
"was under a duty and obligation."

"Keep in mind that this fellow isn't going to be tried next week," Inbau, a member of the Chicago Crime Commission,
said last week. "What the Police Department said is not going to prejudice his rights."

More typical of the walk-
on-eggs approach of authorities
in the Speck case was the response of John Stamos, first assistant state's attorney, when newsmen asked if the state would try to send Speck to the electric chair.

Said Stamos: "No comment." (James M. Low, who usually writes this column, is ill.)

Holt Lashes
Out Against
Johnson

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Frank
Holt changed his campaign tactics Sunday and lashed out at his Aug. 9 gubernatorial runoff
foe, Jim Johnson, whom Holt
said chose "the low road of mud, flashhods, hatred, fear
threats and emotionalism."

Holt, meeting with some 400
supporters, said Arkansas
"can and will recognize the hi-pocrisy of trying to use the word of God to inflame passions, to arouse hatred and to divide people."

"I choose to build our state,
not destroy it," Holt declared.
"The playing of class against class and group against group will dissipate and destroy our human resources, our material
wealth, our spiritual well-being,
and finally our very ability to achieve the place of leadership
among the states that Arkansas
and her people so richly deserve."

Holt added, "We are now
fighting for the future of our state. I pray that we will not destroy what we have labored
so long to build."

Holt said he would fight with all his energy to save the state
"from the purveyors of prejudices x x x that would turn our land into a battleground, if necessary, to achieve personal ambitions for power."

Holt, who has been endorsed
by two defeated candidates, Brooks Hays and Dale Afford,
picked up additional support
Saturday when the Committee on Political Education of the Arkansas State AFL-CIO endorsed him.

"We would be derelict in our duty if we put our head in the sand and watched this state, if this man (Johnson) is elected,
go to hell," said J. Bill Becker,
president of the state AFL-CIO.

Johnson had a satisfactory
labor record, Becker said, perhaps better than Holt's. But he added that the issues were
"larger than the minimum wage, larger than social security . . . these issues go to the core of our democratic institutions."

A hearing was scheduled today on the temporary order restraining distribution of the circulars.

It was Wilson Mizner who observed, "The man who won't lend money isn't going to have many friends—or need them."

Teacher Dies
in Hempstead
Car Crash

Mary Bryant, 60, teacher in the Houston (Texas) schools, was killed in a two-car accident on State Highway 27 between Nashville and Murfreesboro, in Hemp-stead county, about 6 o'clock Sunday night.

Mrs. Bryant was riding in the back seat of a 1965 Pontiac driven by Larry Chaffin and accompanied by Mrs. Chaffin, of Little Rock, when their car was struck by another driven by L. D. May of Nashville.

State Trooper Leon Stokes, who investigated, said May passed another car on the warning yellow line, saw the Chaffin vehicle approaching, endeavored to go off
the left side of the road, and the cars collided head-on.

May is held on an open charge,
Trooper Stokes said.

Friday night a prospective fishing trip to Murrows lake was interrupted by a two-car collision
near the airport on State Highway 4.

A pickup truck carrying a camper and hauling a boat on a trailer was struck by a 1956
Rambler, and the camper was destroyed.

In the pickup were William E.
Davis, Mrs. Davis and their son, of Cotton Valley, La. The Rambler was driven by Charles L.
Ross of Hope.

The accident was investigated
by State Trooper Stokes, who reported that Ross crossed the center line and hit the pickup head-
on. Ross will be charged with driving while intoxicated, the officer said.

Baseball
Tourney to Open Today

District play for the Little League state baseball title will begin
late today (Monday) in Legion Park at Hope's Fair Park, the larger park having been chosen because of its superior lights.
Scheduled today are three games, beginning at 5 p.m., with three more Tuesday night starting at the same hour.

The three games set for tonight are:
Junkins Lumber Co. vs. De-
Queen Lions at 5 p.m.

College Hill vs. Nashville PCA
at 6:45 p.m.

Collins & Williams vs. Horatio
Lions at 8:30 p.m.

Jerry Wilson Cited

Jerry L. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Autrey Wilson of Hope has again been cited for "Out-standing" performance of his duties as a mechanical engineer at the U. S. Army Mobility Equipment Center's Engineer Research and Development Laboratories, Fort Belvoir, Va.

He is shown receiving congratulations and a second Department of the Army certificate from Col. Frank Milner, Commanding Officer, citing him for his outstanding technical and administrative competency in performing in-house development of a relatively silent environmental control unit, and in directing the contractual development of two groups of a family of environmental control equipment.

Mr. Wilson attended Southern

State College and the University of Arkansas, receiving a B.S. Degree in Mechanical Engineering from the latter in 1961. Later, he studied at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, in 1963 he joined the Fort Belvoir Laboratories which are responsible for research, development and engineering for round-the-clock mobility in some 20 fields of military engineering ranging from environmental control units to bridges and mine detection devices. He resides with his wife, Emily, and their children, David Allen and Mark Andrew, at 13 South Ingram St., Alexandria, Va.

Parts of the Bible have been translated into 1,151 languages, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Bardstown Welcomes War Hero

BARDSTOWN, Ky. (AP) — "I am grateful for the honors today," Col. Hal G. Moore Jr. told the hundreds gathered to honor him and other Viet Nam veterans, "but I am more grateful for the prayers you gave my men and me while we were in Viet Nam."

"Please keep praying for the ones who still are there and the ones who have fallen. God bless them all."

Moore then asked the 650 persons at the civic reception Sunday for a minute of silent prayer.

The silence was in contrast to the parade and other celebrations the citizens of Bardstown had planned to honor Moore, winner of the Distinguished Service Cross for valor in Viet Nam.

The festivities were planned when Moore, a Bardstown native, brought his wife and five children home to visit his widowed mother. Included in the plans was a "Hal Moore Night" at a local theatrical pageant, the Stephen Foster story, which honors another son of Bardstown.

The colonel said no. But he told officials he approved of a reception in honor of all area veterans of Viet Nam and families who had lost a relative there.

Army Spec. 4 Michael Davenport of Greensburg, Ky., was one of those honored. He was Moore's driver and radio man for nine months in Viet Nam.

Davenport said the revised program was typical of Col. Moore.

"He never wanted anything his men couldn't have, too," Davenport said. "He's just the greatest I've ever served under."

Among African bushmen, it is a grave sin to refuse to share food. These nomads eke out a bare existence from the harsh, barren expanse of the Kalahari.

Reds Hear of Cong Cruelty for 1st Time

The Soviet Union long has sought a "united front" of Communist-bloc nations to deal with the situation in Viet Nam. But signs today are that the Red-ruled nations are far from unified on the issue.

The curious behavior of the controlled press in Communist Czechoslovakia and an announcement by Communist Romania seeming to go counter to Soviet views on a Viet Nam solution raise strong doubts that the Russians will be able to hold any solid line.

In Prague, Czechoslovakia, about a week ago, the publication Literarni Noviny republished a series of articles from the conservative French newspaper Le Monde.

These articles, dealing with Viet Nam, for the first time told readers of a Communist newspaper in a Communist country that the Viet Cong commit cruel atrocities against villagers of South Viet Nam. Up to now, Communist audiences have been told only that atrocities were committed by Americans and their South Vietnamese allies.

The Czechoslovak paper — and a broadcast of the articles as well — carried Le Monde's account of how the Viet Cong cause destruction and suffering among the rural Viet Nam population, how they kidnap, murder and torture village chiefs and local officials, how they commit "executions, repressions and terror."

Le Monde's stories detailed grim episodes of Viet Cong terror and pointed out that "all the ple and not merely the collaborators, undergo steadily increasing pressure." It told of forced conscription of villagers for Viet Cong guerrilla service, including the drafting of boys 14. It told of the oppressive taxes levied on villagers by the Viet Cong and collected at the points of machine guns.

Texas Youth Is Charged With Death

VAN BUREN, Ark. (AP)—A 19-year-old Texas youth has been charged with first-degree murder and was being held in an Oklahoma City jail today awaiting laboratory confirmation on the identity of a body found near Ozark Saturday.

Prosecutor Jack Yates of the 15th Judicial District filed the murder charge in Crawford Circuit Court Saturday after the finding of a body believed to be that of Kenneth Rush Kienlen, 19, who disappeared July 1.

Franklin County Deputy Coroner Tommy Dangers said Sunday night that he had X-rayed the jaw of the victim and sent it to Oklahoma City where authorities were to compare it with Kienlen's dental records.

At Oklahoma City, Crime Bureau Director Earl Goerke said, "We're just waiting for confirmation of what we are already almost certain of."

Charged with murder is Dennis Sossamon, who was arrested in Dallas Saturday. He waived extradition and was sent to Oklahoma City.

Arkansas authorities are now awaiting confirmation that the body is that of Kienlen before moving for extradition to have Sossamon sent here.

Discovery of the body climaxed a three-week search started by the Del City boy's father, Air Force Maj. Kenneth A. Kienlen of McGuire Air Force Base, N.J., 10 days after his son was last seen.

Sun-bleached and scattered remains of a body were found on Maniteau Mountain in a heavily wooded area near Ozark not far from where Sossamon was born.

The search began within hours after two Oklahoma agents questioned Sossamon in Dallas, where he was being held in connection with a car-theft charge in Oklahoma City. Sossamon had been living in Grand Prairie, between Dallas and Fort Worth.

Sheriff Bob Pritchard and other law enforcement officers found the body, a portion of which was lying under a log.

Pritchard said there was a bullet hole in the skull.

Kienlen had been staying with his grandparents in Del City. He left there with his father's permission July 1 to drive to Little Rock to visit a girl friend.

Young Kienlen's blood-spattered red sports car was discovered eight days after the boy's disappearance, abandoned along U.S. 266 near Checotah, Okla. Police then found two Marines who had ridden in the car, but said the driver was not the Kienlen boy.

HAIR SPRAY is not only for hair holding. It's meant for setting, too. If, after a day at the beach, a quick change is needed for coifs that droop in spots, here is the spray solution. Set down-hearted locks completely dry with brush rollers. Spray these curls and wait 15 minutes. Quick and vigorous brushing makes the curls unfurl. Convenient, too, is the small travel-size hair spray to fit in beach totes and in luggage.

Bob Thomas at the Movies

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — It has been a few months since Richard Chamberlain abandoned his bedside manner as Dr. Kildare, but the earnest young medic continues to haunt him.

"And will continue for some time to come," he admits. After all, the NBC series has been on the network for five years and will continue to rerun itself to death in the late summer. Now Chamberlain is faced with the challenge that comes to all stars of television series: establishing his own identity.

As a first move in the campaign, Chamberlain embarked on a four-week tour of summer theaters in the Noel Coward comedy, "Private Lives." The results?

"Mixed," the actor admitted. "The audiences laughed all the way, but it was tough playing an intimate comedy in theaters seating up to 4,000 people."

"While the audiences seemed to like the show, I could sense the resistance to my appearing as something besides Kildare. During the early part of the play, there would be an undercurrent of comment as people said things like, 'But his hair isn't blond!' or, 'He doesn't sound the same on TV.' "After the performances there would be an autograph line, which was kind of a drag, but it did give me a cross-section of opinion. Men would say, 'I bet you're glad you don't have to play that goodie-goodie any more,' while women commented, 'Why did you change your hair?'"

The hair is part of his escape plan. He changed from his goodie blond to a shade somewhat darker than his natural brown. Chamberlain realizes, of course, that it will take more than a change of hair shade to create himself in a new image. He's reading scripts in search of a movie to add the campaign.

He made two movies under his MGM contract, which still extends a year and a half. Neither advanced his film career.

Advocate Voluntary Prayer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate hearings start today on a proposed constitutional amendment to permit voluntary prayer in public schools.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen said his introduction of the amendment was prompted by court decisions that had provoked "a king-sized protest throughout the land."

The Senate Judiciary Committee's Constitutional Amendments Subcommittee, headed by Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., plans eight days of morning and afternoon hearings.

Dodgers Beat Cards, Take League Lead

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

They stopped the music in the National League's game of musical first basemen, and look who the winner is — Dick Stuart.

Dick Stuart? Bill White, whom Philadelphia acquired from St. Louis, collected seven hits and drove in five runs Sunday, and Orlando Cepeda, whom St. Louis acquired from San Francisco to fill the gap created by White's departure, took over the league batting lead.

But Stuart, whom the Phillies got rid of after acquiring White, took the Los Angeles Dodgers to the head of the league by rapping three hits, driving in three runs and scoring the winning run in the Dodgers' 6-4 victory over St. Louis.

That victory, plus Pittsburgh's loss, 8-1 and 6-5 in 10 innings to Philadelphia, vaulted the Dodgers over the Pirates and into first place, by one percentage point. San Francisco beat Atlanta 4-3 and made it a three-way jam at the top, trailing the Dodgers by only three points.

The Dodgers, Stuart's fourth team in three seasons, picked up the colorful first baseman early in July after he had gone unclaimed for three weeks following his release by the New York Mets.

As a Met he hit .218. In 13 games as a Dodger he's collected 14 hits in 38 at-bats for a lustrous .368 average, driven in five runs and hit three of his seven homers.

Stuart's performance overshadowed that of Cepeda, whom the Cardinals went after in May when they realized White's winter departure had left too much of a hole at first.

Cepeda rapped three hits, scoring two runs and driving in one, and vaulted into first place in the batting race with a .339 mark.

Elsewhere in the National League, Houston whipped Cincinnati 7-0 before losing 10-6 and New York nipped Chicago 2-1.

In the American League, Baltimore blanked Minnesota 4-0, Detroit swept Kansas City 5-1 and 7-1, Cleveland edged California 3-2, Chicago swept New York 4-1 and 5-2 and Boston beat Washington 5-2.

White ripped Pittsburgh apart, smashing three doubles, his 18th homer and a single and driving in five runs in the Phillies' opening-game victory. He added a double and a single in the nightcap, but the Phillies needed a run in the 10th to win it.

Tony Gonzalez singled, was sacrificed to second and came home on Doug Clemens' two-out, pinch-hit single. The Pirates had tied the game with four runs in the eighth, two on Willie Stargell's double, and one in the ninth on Darold Knowles' wild pitch.

Hal Lanier paced the Giants' victory over Atlanta. He rapped four straight singles, drove in two runs and scored another. Willie McCovey's 20th homer in the seventh inning proved decisive.

Houston's Dave Giusti shut out Cincinnati on three hits and drove in a run in the opener. Rusty Staub knocked in three runs for the Astros, who halted their seven-game losing streak and the Reds' five-game winning string.

The Reds came back in the second game, scoring four runs in the fifth and three in the eighth on Tommy Helms' bases-loaded double. Leo Cardenas capped the fifth-inning rally by stealing home.

Bob Shaw checked Chicago on five hits as New York moved within 2½ games of sixth place. Chuch Hiller drove in the Mets' first run with a double, and Ed Kranepool tripled and scored the second run on Cleon Jones' single.

Sunday's Stars
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

BATTING—Bill White, Phillies, smashed seven hits, including four doubles and a homer, and drove in five runs in an 8-1, 6-5 doubleheader sweep over Pittsburgh.

PITCHING—Dave Giusti, Astros, stopped Cincinnati on three hits in a 7-0 victory over the Reds that snapped Houston's losing string at seven in the opener of a doubleheader.

English Win the World Soccer Cup

LONDON (AP) — The World Soccer Cup was stolen by an Englishman, found again by an English dog, and finally won by 11 English players.

They're still calling it the match of the century — England's 4-2 overtime victory over West Germany in the finals at Wembley Saturday before a crowd of 93,000.

The English went slightly crazy at the triumph.

The nation that invented soccer finally was back on top again after being given painful soccer lessons by the rest of the world for the past 30 years.

"The greatest moment in the history of English football," said the London Observer.

The disappearance of the cup about six months ago created almost as much furor as the competition. London police eventually recovered it with the help of a dog. Now it goes into storage again for another four years.

Orioles Not Confident Despite Lead

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Brooks Robinson has given Hank Bauer a birthday present — the American League pennant. "We've got it won," Baltimore's stellar third baseman said Sunday after the league-leading Orioles maintained their gaping margin over second-place Detroit by blanking the Minnesota Twins 4-0. "I don't see any club good enough to beat us in the American League."

Bauer, however, isn't ready to open the pennant package yet.

"We still have 58 games to play," said the Orioles manager, who celebrated his 44th birthday with a 13-length bulge over the Tigers. "I've seen teams lose the pennant with the same big lead we have today."

He conceded that "it's one of the better birthdays I've had. But I'd like a few more like this. And the pennant too; I'll take that."

While rookie Eddie Watt and reliever Eddie Fisher combined for a five-hitter against the Twins, Detroit swept a doubleheader from Kansas City 5-4 and 7-1, ruining a brilliant performance by Jim Nash, the Athletics' unbeaten, 21-year-old right-hander, in the opener.

Nash, going for his fifth victory this month since being called up from the Athletics' Mobile farm club in the Southern League, allowed only one hit — a two-run homer by Norm Cash — over the first eight innings but was lifted in Manager Alvin Dark in the ninth after walking leadoff man Don Wert on four pitches and throwing one ball to Gates Brown.

The Tigers, trailing 4-2 at that point, rallied for three runs against two relief pitchers, with Jerry Lumpe's single driving in the winner.

Elsewhere Sunday, the Chicago White Sox whipped the New York Yankees twice, 4-1 and 5-0; Cleveland edged California 3-2, and Boston downed Washington 5-2.

Los Angeles climbed into first place in the National League with a 6-4 victory over St. Louis, while Philadelphia swept Pittsburgh 8-1 and 6-5 in 10 innings, San Francisco nipped Chicago 2-1 and Houston split with Cincinnati, winning 7-0 before losing 10-6.

The Orioles clipped Jim Kaat for the only run they needed on second-inning singles by Brooks Robinson, Paul Blair and rookie catcher Larry Haney.

Joe Grzenda, who relieved Nash in the Tigers-A's opener, walked Brown and gave up a bunt single to Cash, losing the bases. Jack Aker then came on and hit Al Kaline with a pitch, forcing in a run. Brown scored the tying run on a force play at second and Lumpe singled past a drawn-in infield, breaking the deadlock.

Mickey Stanley smacked a two-run triple off loser Gil Blanco in the first inning of the nightcap and Willie Horton hit a two-run homer in the ninth as the Tigers breezed behind the six-hit pitching of Earl Wilson.

Joel Horlen gave up seven hits in the first two innings, then retired the last 24 batters he faced in the White Sox' first-game victory and Tommy John blanked the Yankees on seven hits in the nightcap.

The earth ranks fifth in size among the planets.

Clark Gets Meyer Prize for June

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Cliff Clark of Harding College, one of the state's top distance runners, has been named the June winner of the Charles T. Meyer Foundation Award.

The award goes to an amateur each month for excellence in athletics.

Clark won the 3,000-meter steeplechase in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics track and field meet, and it was only the second time he had run the event. His time was 9:19.

Charles Lewis III of Little Rock was second in the balloting for his state amateur golf championship and Elbert Stinson of Arkansas AM&N was third for finishing third in the NAIA meet in the quarter mile run with a time of 46.4.

Joe Austin Attends Industrial School

"INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL" — Educators from various sections of Arkansas attended an "industrial school" conducted by Daisy Manufacturing Company at Rogers, Arkansas. Left to right: Mrs. Suzanne Correll, DeQueen; Mrs. Thelma Koon, Sheridan; Joe Austin, Hope; Mrs. Faye Beard, Little Rock; Mrs. Betty Thraikill, North Little Rock; Kelley Webb, Trumann; Mrs. Mary Thompson, Little Rock; Joe Zarlingo, Cabot; and Mr. Cass S. Hough, President, Daisy Manufacturing Company.

Eight educators visited Daisy workshop are assigned to field trips to industries. The purpose of this study is to see and learn how a company operates. The company is asked to provide background information such as how the company was established; what its markets are; how it meets competition; and other pertinent information as to its operation.

The members of the workshop apply the basic principles of economics they have been studying to this company. This enables them to learn how an actual company operates. In turn, as part of their study of basic economics, all members of the operation of a company to their students.

The eight educators visiting Rogers represent all levels of public education. When they return to the workshop, this team will report on the operation of Daisy Manufacturing Company.

"Those in the group consider it an outstanding opportunity to have this time with the management of Daisy," said Mrs. Suzanne Correll, a staff member of the field trip team.

The purpose of the Economic Education Workshop is to help teachers acquire more knowledge of economics. This knowledge will be used to help students develop a fundamental understanding of our economic way of life, its nature, its problems, and its potentialities to do this job they must be prepared to deal in their classrooms with economic concepts to interpret economic data and develop and use teaching materials.

Russia May Be Heading for Peace

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield said today there is an inkling of hope that Soviet leaders may be moving slowly toward supporting negotiations to end the Viet Nam war.

Mansfield praised efforts of British Prime Minister Harold Wilson in Moscow recently to explain the American position on Viet Nam to interest the Russians in using their influence to try to get Hanoi to the negotiating table.

The Montana senator, a White House luncheon guest during Wilson's visit to Washington last Friday, said in an interview: "The results of Mr. Wilson's visit to Moscow were not as gloomy as they have been depicted. He did a good job for us there on Viet Nam."

Mansfield did not elaborate, but he said he found few hopeful signs of progress toward settlement of the war. But he said at a news conference that neither the United States nor the Soviet Union wants the war escalated.

Mansfield was joined by Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., a veteran member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, in rejecting the idea that American bombing of the demilitarized zone between North and South Viet Nam involves any change in U.S. policy or any significant expansion of the war.

Both senators have opposed further widening of the conflict.

Aiken noted the military explanation that B52 strikes were directed at ammunition dumps, weapons storage areas, gun positions and extensive fortifications.

"This seems to indicate that the other fellow had violated this territory first," Aiken said. "A demilitarized agreement doesn't have any validity if the other side breaks it. I wouldn't think this action could be described as escalation."

Agreeing, Mansfield said he doesn't think it represents the kind of expansion of the fighting U.N. Secretary-General U Thant had in mind when he said after returning from a Moscow visit last week that if the present trend continues he is "increasingly convinced that Viet Nam will develop into a major war."

"The danger is there, of course," Mansfield said. "We must keep in mind that escalation begets escalation in one form or another. The result of intensifying the attacks could be an open-ended war."

Aiken said he thinks there is a strong possibility that the Soviet Union doesn't want a major war. But he said a continuation of the conflict for two more years in which the United States might have to commit a large part of its fighting men and equipment might change the minds of Soviet leaders.

He said he does not believe the Russians are ready at this time to take any steps toward bringing about negotiations. He added this was demonstrated by their refusal as cochairman to reconvene the Geneva Conference for Viet Nam talks.

Nigeria's Junta Chief Is Seized

By MYRON K. MYERS

LONDON (AP) — The chief of Nigeria's military junta, Gen. Johnson Aguiyi-Ironsi, was reported still in rebel hands today, but negotiations continued between his government and the insurgents.

This word of Ironsi came in diplomatic reports to London. British officials said they had received no news of the Nigerian army chief who was put in power by a bloody coup six months ago.

"He seems to be out of the picture," said a spokesman for the Commonwealth Relations Office.

Earlier reports said Ironsi was being held in Ibadan, in western Nigeria.

There were no reports of new fighting, but the rebels reportedly held the international airports at Kano, in northern Nigeria, and near Lagos, the capital.

Air Service to Nigeria was halted Friday after the uprising

by army units in Ikwera, around Lagos airport; in Abeokuta, 80 miles north of the capital, and in Ibadan.

Lagos airport remained closed, but British Overseas Airways Corp. announced it was resuming flights to Kano.

"Our representatives in Nigeria report Kano is quiet and its airport usable," a BOAC spokesman said Sunday. "We have 130 passengers in Kano waiting to come back."

A BOAC jetliner arrived in London Sunday with a load of passengers from Lagos, most of them Britons coming on home leave.

Thank You for Your Vote and Confidence.

Together, we will build a better Arkansas.

Your overwhelming acceptance of the way our campaign was conducted and your approval of our program for accelerated progress in Arkansas indicate that you want the same things that I want — an Arkansas which will live up to its potential.

I deeply appreciate the active support of all the people of Hope and Hempstead County, and I pledge that I will live up to your endorsement of me as your next Governor. I need your vote and support now, more than ever, for "a brand new face, a fresh new team."

I urge you to join me in actively campaigning for our cause — a state government which can stand the spotlight of public attention, and a state government founded on the needs and desires of you, the people for whom it is intended to serve.

The man who is always in a hurry falls down occasionally. But most of the time he is likely to get somewhere. The bench-sitter never falls down and never gets anywhere.

West has a normal lead of the ten of hearts against South's four-spade contract. South has an equally normal line of play. He wins the heart with dummy's king and leads a spade for a finesse. West is in with the king and should look around carefully before leading to the next trick.

He knows that South holds the ace of hearts as part of his bid. What else does South hold? One possibility is the actual hand shown in the diagram. Another is one with four trumps to the queen-jack-ten and the ace of clubs. A third will include all three aces.

The third possibility is most unlikely. With three aces, South might well have made some move toward a slam. How about the other two possibilities? The actual hand held by South is certainly one that would have called for South's bidding. He might well have bid the same way if his ace of spades had been the ace of clubs. With only four spades, he would probably have made some bid to suggest a final contract somewhere else.

West's next step is to ask himself, "How can I beat this contract?"

If South holds the ace of clubs, there is no way to defeat him but if East holds the ace of clubs and South holds three cards in this suit, there is a way to beat the hand.

Now South makes his run for the roses by leading out his king of clubs. It holds and a club to the ace and a club ruff saves the rubber.

Government Also Feels Money Pinch

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — This has been money turmoil week for the government as well as the ordinary citizen. For both, whether they're borrowing or investing, the interest rate crisis had developed fast.

Uncle Sam is offering to pay the highest interest rate in 45 years to those who will lend him money.

The House Banking and Currency Committee voted to set a much lower ceiling than that for what banks can pay to get money from some savers — those who would buy Certificates of Deposit of $100,000 or less. The administration then changed its stand and now favors letting the monetary authorities set this ceiling, not the Congress.

A Senate Housing subcommittee approved a plan to pump $2 billion or more into the housing mortgage market, currently short of cash, and originator of the furor over CDs. Home building spokesmen flocked to Capitol Hill to demand that more credit be made available for mortgages.

And British Prime Minister Wilson comes calling on President Johnson to discuss, among other things, the money crisis in Britain, where the pound sterling has been taking a drubbing.

The tightness of the U.S. money market is dramatized by the U.S. Treasury, it offers to pay 5 1/2 per cent to refund $14.9 billion of securities maturing in August and November. Its offer includes a new certificate due Aug. 19, 1967, and a new note due May 15, 1971. By law the Treasury cannot pay more than 4 1/2 per cent on securities of more than 5 years duration.

In addition to this refunding, the Treasury plans to raise about $7 billion of new cash in the second half of 1966. How the interest rate crisis develops will determine what yield the Treasury will have to offer to lenders in the next few months. Treasury borrowing would have to increase beyond $7 billion, if Viet Nam War spending expands more than now predicted.

For the citizen, the interest rate turmoil has centered his week in the fields of home mortgages and how much commercial banks can pay on smaller denomination certificates of deposit.

Says Faubus Is Backing Carpenter

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Joe Basore charged Sunday night that Gov. Orval Faubus has gotten behind the candidacy of Claude Carpenter in an effort to defeat Basore in the Democratic runoff for lieutenant governor on Aug. 9.

Faubus was not immediately available for comment.

Basore lashed out at Faubus and Carpenter over the weekend.

Basore said that friends had told him that Faubus had notified them that Basore must be defeated.

"Apparently the governor was unaware in some instances that these men are my friends," Basore said.

Basore said that Carpenter is "an integral part of the Faubus political machine and the governor seeks to retain influence over state House affairs through my opponent. It might be that the governor figures his man can help hide some of the skeletons in the closet that are there but haven't yet been discovered."

Basore charged that Carpenter "is, has been, and will be completely dominated by Orval Faubus."

He said Carpenter is "part and parcel of the political gang that has held Arkansas' government in its grip for over 10 years."

"My opponent has worked his way up the patronage ladder as an assistant to just about everybody on Capitol Hill," Basore said. "He is now an integral part of its upper bracket echelon."

Basore said Carpenter betrayed the Democratic Party in 1958 when "he sabotaged a Democratic congressional nominee with a write-in, stick-in campaign. He's the kind of Democrat who would betray the party's nominee for governor this coming November if it would serve his masters."

T. E. (Tom) Tyler, who was also a candidate for lieutenant governor but came in fourth in the first primary, issued a statement about Carpenter Saturday.

THE FRAGILE MALE EGO
Dear Helen: A long time ago you said the happiest marriages are those "in which the wife is absolutely sure the husband is smarter than she is — even if isn't."

Then recently you said, "Men don't like to be corrected by women, especially when they're wrong," and "A girl who insists on winning every battle, loses the engagement."

Since when do we have to pamp-er men by not telling them when they're wrong? I'm for putting them in their place, if they need it!

CIA Head Forgiven on Letter
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Foreign Relations Committee forgave CIA Director Richard M. Helms today for a letter expressing pleasure at a newspaper editorial critical of Chairman J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark.

Fulbright told newsmen after the new head of the Central Intelligence Agency was closeted with the committee for about two hours that he regarded the latter as "a closed incident."

When Helms came out, he said "I realize it was a mistake, I regret it and I have apologized."

Fulbright and other senators said no one voiced any support for a demand by Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., that Helms resign. Although a member of the committee, Morse did not attend the meeting.

Fulbright said Helms told the committee that an assistant drafted the letter but that he signed it along with a number of other letters submitted to him at the same time.

COLUMNIST'S LIFE
Dear Readers: You know, I'm a very privileged person. Sometimes I am allowed to share the tenderest and most touching moments in faraway lives, simply because my readers are so filled with the wonder of discovery they must let someone know, and I'm as near as their writing desks.

I never meant, C.G., that a woman should kow-tow. But there are ways of letting a man know where he stands without "putting him in his place". Observe a few happy marriages, and you important little corrections alone. Otherwise, you'll come a cropper with the Fragile Male Ego which is like a fighter's jaw — always waiting and always vulnerable.

ten by one of the family to another and revealing that the writer couldn't put into spoken words. The sentiments might sound corny, if read cold by an outsider — Certainly they aren't great literature — but they mean the world to the person who shares them with me. . . . And to me also, for the greatest compliment a columnist ever receives is, "I know you'll understand —" at the beginning of a letter.

I've asked and received permission to print a few excerpts: From a mother to her embattled teenage son (the son sent me the two-page poem): "It isn't that I'd hurt you, or that I love you less. It's just that I am trying to do my very best. . . . Let's promise that we'll listen to what each other says. And then, my son, there'll be an end to long, regretful days."

From a daughter to her father: "Mother says you're worried about Henry. I want you to know I love him. In a very special way, I love you just as much. I won't make the wrong choice, Daddy, I'm your daughter: how could I?"

From a little girl to her grandmother: "No matter what I do or say, I love you. You're the best grandmother I have, even if you are the only one. Next time I'll do the dishes without you asking. . . . P.S. To Mom: We're sorry we couldn't get you what you want, but with us you know you are on top! — Love always, Ronnie, Bev, Brenda, Nancy, Daddy and pets."

Now I ask you, would a "man-chin" (mansion) please a mother half so much?

. . . . Yes, I'm a very privileged person. I've been allowed to share. — H.
